Testimonials

It was a blessing the day I met you. Your work as an emissary for the Light to bring forth new healing frequencies not only touches children's lives but ALL lives, mine included. God Bless You for your commitment and your courage and your love. The Planet is a better place because of you.

Maureen Moss – Author of "Commitment of Love" and "The Nature of Bliss".

Sanctuary plays an important role on the planet at this time more than ever before. As people are awakening out of the confusion of separation, they are needing safe, loving places to feel validated upon their journey. I found this with Lawrence and his Sanctuary in Oregon. I was able to surrender deeper than ever, because of the trust I felt with Lawrence and his immense abilities as a shaman - he is a true instrument of divine grace and I treasure the work he does and the healing I have received in his presence. His work with young people is exceptional and his ability to "tune-in" extraordinary.

I simply stated and state herewith that my sound healing session of November 8th 2003 on your crystal bed, followed by the all body massage, transformed my life. You helped me to bring out the feminine side of my "grand" self and allowed me to "receive" in a way I had not been able to until that magical day. The best thing is that the "treatment" has not only lasted but has blossomed into an entire "opened" way of life and the year was by far, the most satisfying in my life. Congratulations to you and your team on your brilliant Divinely inspired talent.

TRANSITION SANCTUARY

Transition Sanctuary, nestled in the foothills of Ashland, Oregon is a physical oasis of light where we gather to experience peace, oneness, and tranquility.

We are a sanctuary for your soul. We offer a safe space anchored in love – where you can experience the fullness of your divinity and oneness.

We are dedicated to assisting all those who know they are divine beings having a human experience to reach a deeper connection with the higher vibrational frequencies that are here Now.

We are here to support your self healing, assisting you to clear any blocks that are keeping you from knowing and being in your fullest state of peace, joy and presence.

Combining the power of Sound, Prayer, Aroma and the crystal/copper grid chamber, Reverend Lawrence Katz and the Sanctuary Staff facilitate your ability to heal yourself through the power of your own divinity.

We do not do the healing. We are "guided" through Spirit. The power of Spirit heals and all beings have this power within themselves.
